

Worcestershire Marble Limited has been producing bespoke marble fireplaces in the Worcestershire countryside for over a quarter of a century. Purchasing only the finest materials from carefully selected suppliers from all over the world to ensure we have a wide choice of the finest quality materials.

Continual development of new fireplace designs to keep up with new trends and fires on the market to give the widest choice.

The contemporary clean lines of 'The Jarrow' and the 'The Reigate.'

A new two tone surround "The Newton," shown in the fashionable whites and greys of the moment but, as with all of our products, available in any colour.

The practical solidity of 'The Heathfield' and subtle profiling of 'The Marissa' and 'The Marissa Curve.'

Also, for the first time, we offer a complete electric suite package with 'The Empire' and 'The Evesham'

All surrounds are available to customers own size and material.

Every Worcestershire Marble Fireplace is manufactured in the English countryside using the most up to date computer controlled equipment combined with the skills of our masons.

All of the illustrated fireplaces can be made in any size and from the majority of materials, so your fireplace is truly bespoke. Please ask your nearest stockist for details.

All of these naturally created materials have one special feature in common – each piece is unique.

This means that there will be minor variations and visible fossils, veins and vents (little holes) appearing here and there. This is the beauty of a natural material and this range of products is aimed at those who understand the uniqueness of natural stone.
